

Court reporters and captioners, we need your help!

The National Court Reporters Foundation recently introduced a new initiative, the Hard-of-Hearing Heroes Project, to preserve the experiences of veterans with hearing loss through the use of CART captioning for the Library of Congress Veterans History Project.

NCRF is partnering with the Hearing Loss Association of America to interview multiple veterans with hearing loss at the HLAA2017 Convention in Salt Lake City, Utah.

If you are, or know, stenographic court reporters or captioners who would like to participate at the event, please join us for one of the four sessions below.

Friday, June 23, 2017
